LIST OF MANUFACTURERS OF FRUIT AND VEGETABLE HAMPERS AND BASKETS

(Including Manufacturers Identification Numbers
Assigned for Use in Accordance with Reg. 3, Sec.
2, of the Standard Container Act of 1928)

(Revised to July 1943)

Washington, D. C.
July 1943

FOREWORD

This List is confined to the manufacturers of containers for fresh fruits and vegetables standardized by the U. S. Standard Container Acts of 1916 and 1928, which are administered by the Regulatory Division of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch of the Food Distribution Administration. These Acts apply to all styles of berry boxes, till and Climax baskets, made of veneer or paper; hampers, round stave baskets, including round bottom and "tub" styles; and market baskets, made of veneer or of paperboard.

Berry boxes with raised bottoms, such as the Hallock and Leslie types, have been declared deceptive by the U. S. Food and Drug Administration under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. To overcome this objection some manufacturers have re-designed their Hallocks so as to bring the bottom flush with the lower edge of the band. Oregon law specifically prohibits the use of Hallock or other berry boxes with "set-up" bottoms.

Although primarily a list of basket manufacturers, many of those listed make other types, such as crates, boxes and cartons.

Paper berry boxes and till baskets (Symbol Letters "V" and "S") are commonly made in the same styles as those made from veneer, and paper market baskets (Symbol letter "Y") likewise correspond for the most part with the sizes and shapes of splint or veneer market baskets. A new symbol letter "I" has been added to identify paperboard baskets with slanting sides corresponding to the Climax veneer basket.

In this List the numbers shown opposite the factory name in the left-hand column are the identification numbers assigned to manufacturers who have had the specifications of their containers approved by the Secretary of Agriculture as required by the Standard Container Act of 1928. These numbers are used in marking the approved containers in a style prescribed in the regulations under the 1928 Act. The containers for which specifications must be approved are hampers, round stave baskets, and splint or market baskets. For convenient reference a supplementary list of these identification numbers, consecutively, by States, is appended. The Standard Container Act of 1916, which applies to berry boxes, till baskets and Climax baskets, does not require approval of specifications. Hence no identification numbers are assigned factories making only those types of baskets.

Manufacturers who assemble baskets from flat stock purchased from other manufacturers are indicated by the abbreviation "Assem." in the right-hand column preceding the symbols.

The total number of manufacturers listed is 250. This represents a sharp reduction (22%) since 1941 when the previous List was published, reflecting economic changes due to the war. Some factories have been forced to close for the duration because of the shortage of materials and labor; others have discontinued the diversity of containers previously manufactured to concentrate on a few more essential ones; still others have converted wholly to war production.
